Easter Weather Was

Anything But Kind

Easter passed quietly in Tonopah. The day was exceptionally chilly and occasional flurries of snow were in evidence, with a cold breeze. This did not deter the ladies from coming out in their new raiment, but promulgating to any persistent extent was out of the question unless the winter coat was brought into use. The weather man must have been playing a joke on us as he had made the prediction that it would be fair. The churches were liberally patronized in the morning, and there was a large attendance at each house of worship, and the musical programs were of a splendid nature.

POLICE ACTIVE DURING EASTER WITH 6 ARRESTS

Two Cutting Scrapes and Battles Royal Take Place in Lower Part of the City.

It was a busy day and night Sunday that Chief of Police O. H. Smith and his deputies experienced. The first call came from the U. & I. buffet on lower Main street as a result of a general mixup in which a number of Mexicans engaged. Alfred Cabo took offense at something Jim Rios had done, and proceeded to jump on the hat of the latter which he threw on the floor. During the melee several became engaged and a running battle occurred in which knives and a billiard cue were used, the windup taking place near the depot when Deputy N. L. Schade appeared on the scene and took both Cabo and Rios to jail. This morning Cabo was given the alternative by Justice Cuddy, of either paying a $75 fine or spending 60 days in jail. Up to date he is still in jail. Rios pleaded not guilty and will have his trial tomorrow.

Dominick Bellas was the next belligerent to get in jail. He is alleged to have started trouble at 8:30 last night by assaulting Henry Brouck near the Harem. Pulling a knife it is said he attempted to stab Brouck in the stomach, but the latter evaded the thrust and escaped with a bad cut in the left hand. Bellas was taken to jail and will be given a trial tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. State Detective Roy Gillen made the arrest.

At 3 o'clock this morning N. Lippy and a man named Riverbank became engaged in an altercation in the lower section of town, and Lippy, being the aggressor, was taken to jail. A man named Larson was arrested for interference with an officer.

Richard Bonney was arrested last night at 8:30 for invading the sanctity of a friend's home. A complaint, the nature of which has not yet been determined, is to be filed against Bonney some time this afternoon.

SILENT TRIBUTE IS PAID "BILLIE" FORD

Scores of friends of many years standing assembled at the Bier yesterday afternoon to pay final and lasting tribute to this pioneer Celestial resident of Tonopah and southern Nevada, and to offer consolation and sincere sympathy to the relatives of a man who had always proven a loyal and true friend and a good citizen. It is doubtful if any other Celestial in the history of Nevada ever enjoyed a wider acquaintance among the white race, or had established any more friends, or stood in higher esteem, than did "Billie" Ford, a true American in words, acts and deeds. He had lived among us here in Tonopah for 21 years, and he had lived among and associated with the older residents of Nevada for upwards of a half a century, and few were ever heard to speak a word impugning his integrity, his character, his broad mindedness, and his sincerity of purpose.

There was a profusion of floral offerings covering the casket, showing the esteem in which deceased had been held by his fellow men. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. G. G. Holsholt of the Episcopal church, who offered words of consolation to the grieving relatives. The cortege was unusually long and it slowly wended its way to the local cemetery where the remains were consigned to their last resting place. Owing to the severity of the weather there were no services at the grave. The pallbearers were old friends of the deceased, some of them having known him almost since his advent into Nye and Esmeralda counties, as follows: J. J. McQuillan, W. J. Douglas, W. A. Marsh, Frank Miller, C. F. Wittenberg and W. W. Booth.

GIVE COOKIES TO DISABLED WAR VETERANS

Woman's Relief Corps Will Provide Their Quota Sweets for Boys in Hospitals.

A public meeting has been called to assemble at the high school next Friday evening in response to the appeal of Mrs. M. H. Crisler, of Carson City, department president of the California and Nevada's Woman's Relief Corps, auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic, which is rendering much towards making life worth while for the disabled veterans of the late world war. The objects of the meeting are best explained by reading the following, which has been addressed to the women of the state of Nevada:

"Mrs. M. H. Crisler, department president of California and Nevada Woman's Relief Corps, auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic, has recently returned to our city and has been telling us of the things that can be done to aid the wounded boys in the hospitals of California. She has been through them all, made a study of their wants, and the splendid organization which she represents, together with other kindred organizations, are doing all they possibly can to alleviate the suffering and bring cheer to the broken spirits of the boys and men who have sacrificed health and limbs in the defense of their country. She has said that had she not gone and seen for herself the maimed boys in our hospitals, many of whom will never leave the walls of the institutions in which they now reside, she never could have realized the misery and sufferings of these living martyrs of the world war.

"Through the work and cooperation of the organizations mentioned above they are now planning to place cookie jars in all the hospitals so that the poor boys may help themselves to 'mother's cookies' whenever they so please. She believes that it will be possible for all these hospitals, with the exception of the Letterman hospital in San Francisco, to have their supply of cookies each day through the effort of the organizations now working or soon to be working to fulfill that aim.

"At Letterman hospital there are so many patients that they felt that it would be impossible to keep the jars filled. She came back to Nevada not knowing what could be done, but hoping that some plan might be evolved that would make it possible for the Letterman boys to also have their cookies each day. 'The hospital officials agreed to supply the jars for the cookies and the women of Carson City, only too willing to help these poor boys, have evolved the following plan which we hope will meet with your approval and receive your hearty cooperation.

"The aim is to supply the hospital daily with at least 15 gallons of cookies. These cookies to be baked and donated and shipped to their destination by the women of the state of Nevada. 'The plan is to have the women of each city or town call a mass meeting of the women interested, form a central committee for their city or town which will devise ways and means of canvassing the same to obtain the names of the women who will bake cookies when they are called upon to do so by their central committee. Some of the larger cities may be called upon to send their quota of 15 gallons twice a month as some of the smaller towns may not be able to supply so many. Each city or town will ship their supply on the same day of the month in every month. For example, Carson, say, will be asked to ship cookies on the 10th day of every month; Reno the 12th; Ely the 20th, etc., etc.

"The central committee in charge of arrangements asks each town to get busy at once so that the boys may have their cookies. You are asked to send in the following information to Miss Clara Crisler, P. O. Box 473, Carson City, Nevada: '1.—Will your city or town cooperate in this movement and keep it up for a period of one year, or longer, if necessary? '2.—Will you supply 15 gallons of cookies for every shipment from your town? If you cannot send this amount will you please state how many you can supply? If you are able to make more than one shipment a month will you please so state? '3.—Will you agree to pay expressage on your shipment? '4.—Please state the number of days it will take to ship from your town to San Francisco.

"If the central committee in charge can get this data it will be possible then to designate the dates for each town so that there will be no confusion and a fresh supply will arrive daily at the hospital."

PERSONAL

MR. and MRS. THOMAS KENDALL and little son spent Easter in Goldfield with Mrs. Kendall's mother.

Verdict of Neglect in Death of Joe Castella

A verdict of neglect on the part of the deceased was returned Saturday afternoon by the coroner's jury that held an inquisition into the death of Joe Castella, who expired at the West End mine on Friday night. Castella was employed as a machine driller in Tonopah 76 ground and was working out of raise 871. The jury held that he should have blown out the raise either with compressed air or a blower previous to entering to start work. The jury was composed of F. B. Mechling, Joe Rippingham, Joe White, George Southworth, Allen Rives and Frank Brennan.

AMUSEMENTS

"THE SILENT CALL" BIG PRODUCTION AT BUTLER

Now in the eighth big week of its Los Angeles run, "The Silent Call," adapted from Hal G. Evart's Saturday Evening Post story, "The Cross Pull," will be the headline attraction at the Butler today.

When you've seen this picture you have seen the screen's utmost in drama of men, women and beasts of the back woods. A thrilling story of the great northland. A girl and a dog among men of all breeds out yonder in the hills of thrills. Life in the raw out there, a life the girl, fresh from the city, could not understand. The feature star is Strongheart, the world-famous Belgian police dog, decorated by the allied governments for his heroic contributions to victory in the great war—the most astounding dog intelligence ever known.

The story deals with the dual nature of an animal half dog, half wolf. Through the swift evolution of the plot, the dog becomes an outcast from civilization and makes, with his wolf relatives of the silent places. But when he sees the human beings whose affection he has claimed, are in peril, the dog reverts itself in a thrilling climax that is beyond anything you have ever seen on the screen.

Tomorrow, a Gertrude Atherton picture, "Don't Neglect Your Wife."

Tonopah Girl's Essay Is Sent to Washington.

Miss Lois Wann, Tonopah school girl, will receive a gold medal and $15 in money as a result of having been awarded first prize in the essay contest of the elementary schools of the state, the subject being treated being: "How I Can Make the Highways More Safe." The essay of Miss Wann has been sent to Washington to represent Nevada in the national contest.

Chee Fong Is Taken to Carson for Trial

Chee Fong, Chinaman, arrested last week by H. H. Haley, narcotic officer, was taken yesterday morning to Carson City by deputy United States Marshall J. E. Muller. Fong informed Justice Cuddy there was no occasion to fix bonds in his case as he had no friends in Tonopah who would qualify, but later he told Deputy Marshall Muller that he could give plenty of bail as soon as he reached Carson City or Reno.

"That fellow is pretty clever," remarked Mr. Muller, "and it looks to me like he was planning a free trip to Reno. I would not be surprised if he furnished bonds immediately, and proceeded to lay in a new stock of narcotics, but if he does he will find himself nailed again."

Peterson Draws Both Fine and Imprisonment

Fred A. Peterson, who pleaded guilty in the district court last Thursday to operating a still, was sentenced no last Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock to serve three months in the county jail and to pay a fine of $300.
